

VETRI REPEL » A repellent with natural oils to protect your pets from Fleas, Ticks, Mosquitoes and Flies

Vetri Repel is a natural repellent to protect your pets from fleas, ticks, mosquitoes, flies, and other pests.

Vetri Repel Wipes:

- » Contains 60 pre-moistened towelettes for portable and easy application during outdoor excursions
- » Can be used on dogs and cats

- » Produces a natural shield from unwanted pests
- » Combines natural Brazilian oils to keep pests from detecting the scent that attracts them to your pet
- » Contains Oils have been used for centuries by the indigenous people of the Amazon forest

DIRECTIONS FOR USE:

Please read all directions carefully before application.

Wipe the pre-moistened towelette on the pet's fur, including legs and stomach, then work into the coat if necessary. Depending on the thickness, type, and length of fur more than one wipe may be required to get the product through the entire coat. Avoid contact with the animal's nose, mouth and eyes when applying on the animal's face. Reapply every 2 – 3 days or as needed before the animal goes outside. Reapply whenever the animal is thoroughly wet. Safe for daily use, if desired.

Safe for use on puppies and kittens. Keep wipe pack lid closed when not in use.
